

«RusLine» Aviation Company is one of the leading aviation companies in the segment of regional air carriage in the Russian Federation. The main aim of «RusLine» is to build up a route network between regional centers and hub airports. The company was founded in 1997. In 2007 «RusLine» became the first Russian air carrier using Canadian airplanes Bombardier CRJ100/200, and nowadays it has the biggest fleet of such airplanes in Russia.

The Aviation Company's main airport is in Vnukovo, additional hub airports are in Yekaterinburg and Saint Petersburg. The route network of «RusLine» includes more than 25 flight destinations in Russia.

Aviation Company has several times become a winner of various prestigious prizes in the segment of regional air carriage. For example, the Company became the winner of the annual prize «Russian Wings» in 2021, 2020, 2019, 2018, 2017, 2014, 2011 and 2006. The Aviation Company was the best air carrier in 2015, 2014 and 2013 according to Pulkovo Airport award LED TOGETHER. «RusLine» was the winner of the annual prize held by Voronezh Airport in the category «The Leader of Regional Routes» in 2018, 2017 and 2015. By the end of 2018, «RusLine» Aviation Company was among the most punctual air carriers of Koltsovo Airport. Furthermore, «RusLine» is the winner of the Eurasian Award in Aviation Marketing in the category «Aviation Company of the Year» in Group C (passenger volume from 500 thousand to 1 million passengers a year).